The addresses of each of these victims are on file with the United States Probation Department.

4. To the extent that the restitution remains unpaid:
  - a. While under the supervision of the United States Probation Office, the defendant shall pay at least 10% of his gross monthly income.

The amounts set forth in subparagraphs a. above is subject to subsequent revision by the Court as provided by 18 U.S.C. § 3664(k).

5. The defendant shall notify the Court and the United States Attorney of any material change in the defendant's economic circumstances that might affect the defendant's ability to pay restitution. See 18 U.S.C. § 3664(k). In addition, as a condition of probation, the defendant shall make complete and periodic financial disclosure as directed by the Court in consultation with United States Probation Department.
6. If the defendant knowingly fails to pay the restitution required by this Order or by law he will be subject to one or more of the actions permitted by 18 U.S.C. §§ 3613A (Effect of Default) including re-sentencing pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3614. See also 18 U.S.C. § 3615 (Criminal Default).
7. Payment of the restitution shall be made to the Clerk of the Court for the Eastern District of New York. Any restitution funds paid by the defendant pursuant to this Order shall be distributed by the Clerk of the Court to each victim identified above, following a pro rata distribution.
8. This Order is entered after the Court has fully considered the factors set forth in 18 U.S.C. §§ 3663 and 3664 that are applicable to this defendant.

9. This Order is part of the sentence and shall be included in the judgment.
